Dr Gauri Bazaz-Malik

With profound sorrow and grief we wish to inform that our beloved Dr Gauri Bazaz-Malik passed away peacefully at her home in Potomac, Maryland, USA on May 15, 2014. She was the former Head and Professor of Pathology at Lady Hardinge Medical College and Vallabhbhai Patel Chest Institute, Delhi. A well known pathologist and teacher and above all a very kind soul. She was actively involved in women's and human rights organisations and was chairperson of the Indian Renaissance Institute. She was on the editorial board of the Indian Journal of Chest Diseases and Allied Sciences and provided her expertise in the field of pathology for the Journal for several years.
